

The lines that contain the altitudes of a triangle are concurrent at the orthocenter of the triangle. The orthocenter of a triangle can be inside, on, or outside the triangle.

Take note

Concept Summary Special Segments and Lines in Triangles

